FANTINI CELEBRATES 20 YEARS

Fantini Research, the leading daily source of actionable information to institutional investors and C-level executives in the gaming industry, is celebrating its 20th anniversary.

What began as a single e-mailed newsletter with six subscribers in January 2000 has grown into a multi-title publishing and research enterprise with a global customer base.

“We are proud of our accomplishments in building our suite of products and services, and we are even more excited about the future as the gaming industry continues to grow and evolve,” founder and CEO Frank Fantini said.

“The proliferation of sports betting, continuing emergence of online gaming, the transformation of regional casinos into experiential entertainment destinations and rapid globalization bode well for the industry’s future.

“Fantini Research will be an integral part of every phase of that evolution giving investors and executives the timely and critical information they need to succeed and prosper,” Fantini said.

Fantini’s flagship publication is the daily Fantini’s Gaming Report, known as being “More important than your morning coffee.”
