

June 13-14 East Coast Gaming Congress Approved for Continuing Legal Education Credits in New Jersey and Pennsylvania

Atlantic City, N.J., May 22, 2018 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- The 22nd annual East Coast Gaming Congress & NexGen Gaming Forum (ECGC), which takes place June 13-14 in Atlantic City, has been approved for Continuing Legal Education credits in both New Jersey and Pennsylvania. The ECGC program has been approved for 5.5 general credits in Pennsylvania and for 4.8 general credits in New Jersey.

ECGC includes the NexGen Gaming Forum on Day 1, a cocktail reception at The Pool at Harrah's that evening, and a Keynote Luncheon with New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy, the signature CEO Roundtable, and outstanding networking opportunities.

More than 500 gaming operators, equipment manufacturers, regulators, attorneys, architects, analysts, public officials, investors and other gaming-related professionals are expected to attend ECGC. The full two-day conference schedule and registration is at www.ecgc.us.

ECGC is organized and produced by Cooper Levenson, Attorneys at Law and Spectrum Gaming Group. Other co-organizers and co-producers are The Friedmutter Group, an industry-leading architectural and design firm based in Las Vegas, and Sysco Corporation, the global leader in selling, marketing and distributing food products to restaurants, healthcare and educational facilities, lodging and gaming establishments.
