

Get Ready to Party at ICE at Stakelogic's Exclusive Takeover at London Reign

Stakelogic wants to get the party started this ICE with an exclusive party at The London Reign Showclub

Industry giant Stakelogic wants to celebrate the final ICE in London in style. The company is holding an exclusive party event at one of the most coveted clubs in London, Reign Showclub, on Wednesday, February 7th, starting at 10 PM.

The event is strictly by invitation only, with partners, clients and other members of the iGaming industry receiving exclusive invites to come along and celebrate another fantastic year for Stakelogic.

With places filling up fast and limited access available, we encourage anyone who may be attending to contact their account managers and reserve their place at what promises to be the most exciting party event of ICE 2024. Those who do not reserve entry or have not been invited to the event will be denied entry.

The London Reign is an iconic venue in the heart of the London West End. The venue is famous for its glamorous decor, dazzling showrooms, and its state-of-the-art audio-visual displays. All of which will help the English capital say goodbye to ICE before its move to Barcelona in 2025.

Jake Agius, Head of Marketing at Stakelogic: "There is no city in the world like London, and with the iGaming industry descending on the city for ICE, what better time to get everybody together and give the city the big ICE send-off it deserves?"

Stakelogic has built long-standing relationships all across the industry, and this event gives us a chance to get everybody together, say thank you, and celebrate what has been a fantastic twelve months for the company. We can't wait to see you there."
