

Jogo Global set for inaugural appearance at G2E

Platform provider and casino content developer's US MD Robb Vecchio to attend show in Las Vegas

Monday 20th September 2021: Jogo Global, the fast growing platform provider and casino content developer, is making its first appearance at the Global Gaming Expo (G2E) in October as the company continues to build momentum in the US market.

Following the appointment of highly experienced Robb Vecchio as Managing Director of the company's US division, interest in Jogo's product offering and services has sky rocketed in recent months.

At the 2021 edition of G2E, which takes place between October 4-7 at the Sands Expo in Las Vegas, delegates can find out more about how Jogo's wide range of bespoke and scalable casino solutions are powering growth for operators across the States.

Jogo has developed platforms that converges online and mobile with land based, allowing players to enjoy the very best user experience. It also creates appealing and innovative premium games that can be played across online and retail venues. This includes the adaptation of existing land-based titles for online use.

Robb Vecchio, Managing Director of Jogo Global US, said: "It's fantastic that G2E is returning to its traditional format and we're very much looking forward to reuniting with old friends and making new contacts at this year's show."

"G2E presents us with the perfect opportunity to raise awareness of the products and services that Jogo Global is delivering. From customized platforms to the development of immersive games, we are a nimble provider that is making great strides within the US market."

Robb Vecchio and Jogo Global will be attending G2E 2021, which takes place between October 4-7 at Sands Expo, Las Vegas.
