

Aruze Gaming America Releases New Cabinet at National Indian Gaming Association Trade Show

Aruze Gaming America, Inc. (“Aruze”) is proud to introduce a new cabinet at the National Indian Gaming Association (“NIGA”) trade show in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Aruze Gaming America, Inc. (“Aruze”) is proud to introduce a new cabinet at the National Indian Gaming Association (“NIGA”) trade show in Las Vegas, Nevada. The new cabinet, Muso™, is the first slot machine equipped with a wireless charger. This groundbreaking addition will be convenient for casino players and increase play time.

The Muso™ product line creates a stunning light display with synchronized patterns in its LED back panel design. Aruze has also amped up the sound system to create a powerful theater-like sound for the best gaming experience. Muso’s ergonomic button deck is an expansive glass table with a new interface design on a 13.3-inch LCD screen.

The new Muso line of cabinets, the first of which is Muso™ Triple-27, will be at NIGA 2018 at the Aruze booth #1336.

Eric Persson, Global Chief Operating Officer and President of Aruze Gaming America commented, “This new cabinet represents a step forward for our product library. Our team once again leads the industry by introducing wireless charging capability to slot machines - although I’m sure others will soon follow.”

For more information regarding Muso™ or other Aruze products, please visit Aruze’s NIGA booth #1336 or contact an Aruze Regional Account Executive.
