

Betinvest will exhibit at G2E Las Vegas for enhancing its representation in USA

Betinvest announces that its team will go to Global Gaming Expo 2018 Las Vegas, the largest gambling industry event. Having a wide range of products, solutions and services, company will provide G2E visitors with Special Exhibition Offers of its core competency products – Sportsbook Online Platform and Data Feed. At 4618 Stand Betinvest will give an opportunity to pursue your betting business free of provider charges and fees for 3 months.

“North America is a hugely significant region for us and we want to use our expertise to help drive the sector forward. Betinvest already has an active representation in some US regions, and negotiations with potential clients move us towards the goal of a full-service office in the country. We’re coming to G2E loaded with special commercial offers and promotional conditions for cooperation as part of a dedicated strategy to develop our internationally renowned technologies, solutions and services within the US.” – said VP of Business Development Valentyn Kyrylenko.

For more information on Betinvest products and services, click here

Betinvest is an international company with its main offices in Great Britain. The company has more than 19 years of related business experience in the gambling industry, and specializes in developing and providing betting solutions for operators all over the world. The Betinvest product line includes Sportsbook, Data feed, Lottery and CRM Octopus. It also provides its business customers with a universal online eGaming platform, land-based shops operations and mobile solutions for maximum market penetration.