RENO, Nev. (March 12, 2019) – Tribal operators seeking to provide unsurpassed comfort to their sportsbook and casino guests will find everything they are looking for in Gary Platt’s booth at NIGA 2019.

Gary Platt, which serves Tribal operators of all sizes across the U.S., will be in booth #2124 at the tradeshow. Joining Gary Platt in the booth is Native American-owned and operated Gitchi Gaming, the leading distributor in Tribal gaming.

“For the entire 21 years we have been in business, Gary Platt has been a proud partner with Tribal operators. Now at NIGA 2019, we are thrilled to show our innovative and unsurpassed sportsbook seating options, to help Tribes comfortably embrace this next, exciting new phase in gaming,” said Gary Platt Vice President of Sales and Marketing Joshua Corrick.

Leading Gary Platt’s exhibit is its new sportsbook chair and dual sportsbook options. Whether it’s football, baseball, basketball, or a day at the races, sports fans spend a good amount of time sitting, and the researchers and designers at Gary Platt have carefully hand-crafted ideal solutions for the sportsbook. Features include Gary Platt’s proprietary foam blend; ergonomics throughout the design, such as curved leg edge and lumbar support; and creature-comforts such as oversized arm rests and large cup holder.

Gary Platt will also show many other handcrafted styles that offer seating solutions for the entire operation, including slots, tables, restaurants, bars, office, and convention area. Styles include the patented Monaco® design, the best-selling chair in North America.

Also in the booth is Gary Platt’s new quick-change seat. With just two bolts, the quick-change seat allows operators to change seats and get the chair back in the game in under two minutes.
