

Gaming Laboratories International (GLI®) is the Only Lab at ICE 2019 That Can Take You Anywhere in the World

GLI to Showcase its Industry-leading iGaming, Sports Wagering, and Cybersecurity Expertise at Stand N3-210

HAARLEM, The Netherlands (24 January 2019) – With interactive gaming (iGaming) and sports wagering the hot topics at this year's ICE 2019 gaming trade show in London, Gaming Laboratories International (GLI®) will have a team of locally focused iGaming, sports wagering, and cybersecurity experts at its stand N3-210 to help attendees confidently navigate the dynamic and ever-changing landscape of online, sports wagering, and interactive gaming technologies. They are eager to demonstrate the many ways regulators, operators, and suppliers can achieve success with GLI's decades of tested, proven, and trusted global iGaming and sports wagering experience, knowledge, and capabilities.

As pioneers in interactive gaming and sports wagering testing and consultancy, GLI® Digital is everywhere iGaming and sports wagering are going. GLI Digital is trusted by iGaming regulators the world over and is approved in all regulated iGaming and sports wagering markets.

GLI's experts will also be at ICE 2019 to demonstrate how GLI is the only lab that can take suppliers' newest gaming innovations anywhere in the world they want them to go. GLI is strengthening its hand in EMEA by increasing staff and expanding its technical capabilities. Now with more world-class testing, assessment, and certification bandwidth throughout EMEA, GLI is better equipped than ever to help get suppliers' gaming and lottery products over the line and into global markets with unsurpassed quality, speed, reliability, accuracy, and cost-saving efficiency.

The unrelenting threat of cyber attacks on the worldwide gaming and lottery industries has made cybersecurity a mission-critical topic at this year's ICE show. Attendees who visit stand N3-210 will learn how GLI's cutting-edge Cyber Security Services provides the industry's most sophisticated and advanced cybersecurity countermeasures to help secure their operations and protect their most valuable assets 24/7.

"The global gaming and lottery industries are undergoing a period of unprecedented change and growth that is both exciting and challenging," said Martin Britton, Managing Director of EMEA. "We look forward to sharing with this year's ICE attendees how GLI can help operators, suppliers, and regulators overcome obstacles, maximize opportunities, and achieve success in the iGaming, sports wagering, and land-based gaming and lottery sectors. With more than 1,200 employees in 23 locations on six continents, only GLI has the unmatched global resources capable of delivering the highest levels of quality, accuracy, and rapid testing times to our valued clients and customers throughout Europe and the world."
