Spectrum Gaming Group Proud to Serve as Executive Director of NCLGS

Spectrum Gaming Group, which has served as Executive Director of the National Council of Legislators from Gaming States for five years, takes pride in producing the NCLGS Winter Meeting, a unique gaming conference taking place January 10-12 in San Diego

NCLGS is the only conference of its kind in the United States where the decision-makers on gaming policy convene and cross-pollenate ideas. At least 42 lawmakers from 20 states will convene at the Winter Meeting, where they will learn from experts in all facets of gaming policy, and meet with stakeholders to discuss ideas, express concerns and address emerging issues.

Spectrum – which has completed dozens of studies and consultations for state governments throughout the country – is proud to develop the NCLGS Winter Meeting agenda and foster discussions among legislators and stakeholders.

The agenda for the three-day NCLGS Winter Meeting will include:

- Six legislative-chaired Committee sessions that will focus on tribal and commercial casinos, responsible gaming, pari-mutuels, and lotteries, as well as legal, regulatory, and operational aspects related to sports betting
- Two general-session Masterclasses focusing on sports betting and tribal-state compacting conducted by the International Masters of Gaming Law
- ·Morning Keynote Address from Robert Zahradnik of The Pew Charitable Trusts
- Luncheon Keynote Address from Bill Miller of the American Gaming Association: “State of the Industry”
- Two Sunday morning general session panel discussions
- Thursday evening networking reception
- Friday evening welcome reception
- ·Saturday afternoon tour of Pechanga Resort Casino in nearby Temecula

As NCLGS Executive Director, Spectrum is committed to ensuring that every attendee captures the maximum benefit at this unique gaming conference. Spectrum executives will available to talk individually with Winter Meeting attendees regarding public policy, economic and social impacts, regulation, and other aspects of regulated gaming. Contact us at solutions@spectrumgaming or +1.609.926.5100 to arrange a meeting with Spectrum.

There is still time to attend the NCLGS Winter Meeting by registering here, so we hope to see you in San Diego.

Spectrum Gaming Group is a non-partisan consultancy that specializes in the economics, regulation, and policy of legalized gambling worldwide. We have provided independent research and professional services to public- and private-sector clients since 1993. We bring wide industry perspective to every engagement, having worked in 40 U.S. states and territories and in 48 countries on six continents.