

Top Ten Reasons Why You Should Attend the NCLGS Summer Meeting, July 12-14 in Minneapolis

- 1. Join a Summer Meeting-record 45 legislators – and counting – from 18 states.
- 2. NCLGS meetings are the only gaming conferences where the legislative decision-makers meet.
- 3. Network with nearly 200 attendees including gaming operators, suppliers, sports executives, attorneys, analysts, regulators, public officials, and others who have a stake in all aspects of legalized gambling.
- 4. Learn from six legislative committee sessions: Casinos, Emerging Forms of Gaming, Indian Gaming, Lotteries, Responsible Gaming, and State-Federal Relations.
- 5. See and hear Penn National Gaming CEO Timothy Wilmott’s visionary Keynote Luncheon Address: “The Next Five Years of Gaming.”
- 6. Learn from two Masterclass panels conducted by the International Masters of Gaming Law.
- 7. Attend two (not the usual one!) fantastic cocktail receptions.
- 8. Tour the Sportradar offices on Saturday afternoon.
- 9. Earn 10.75 and 10.0 general credit hours from the Minnesota and Nevada boards of Continuing Legal Education, respectively.
- 10. Explore all that Minneapolis has to offer in food, fun, and culture over the course of the three-day meeting.

For sponsorship information, contact events@nclgs.org. Legislators seeking NCLGS membership information should contact Wayne Marlin at wayne.marlin@nclgs.org.

The Summer Meeting is co-locating with the GLI University Mid-Year Regulators Seminar on July 11.

<https://gaminglabs.com/events/gli-mid-year-seminar/>