

APEX GAMING SOLUTIONS APPLAUDED AT NIGA IN SAN DIEGO

Local partner APOGEE Gaming announces appointment of Michael Strader.

'Taking gaming to the next level' has always been the focus of management at APEX and this was clear to see at the NIGA, the premiere North American Indian Gaming show that took place between 1st and 4th April in San Diego, USA. Two major APEX innovations stole the show in San Diego: CLOVER LINK Games and the iDROPs.

The NIGA was the perfect opportunity to introduce Michael Strader. Mr. Strader has assumed the responsibility as Regional West USA Business Development and Sales Director. "We are proud to have Michael on board. We have so many opportunities. His knowledge of the industry and his professional attitude alongside his proven sales success makes him the ideal addition to our team", commented Mr. Drapeau.
