

---

April 17, 2019

TIG Supports Education and Networking on Wednesday, April 24, at Betting on Sports America

The Innovation Group (TIG) is excited to support the inaugural Betting on Sports America (BOSA) next week in New Jersey. From the largest, dedicated sports betting expo hall in the United States to the outstanding lineup of expert speakers, it's sure to be an incredible four days of business development for stakeholders in the U.S. market. Look for our team throughout the event and at these programs.

---

"Tribal View - How Do Tribes See the Sports Betting Opportunity?"

Wed, April 24 | 2:45 - 3:30 p.m. | Conf. Room 1 | Betting on Regulation Track

One of the biggest topics for debate. How will the tribes respond to the sports betting revolution in a gaming arena where exclusivity and compacts are the order of the day?

Featuring:

Brian Wyman, Ph.D.

Senior VP, Operations & Data Analytics

The Innovation Group

---

Emerging Leaders of Gaming Meetup

Wed, April 24 | 5:00 - 6:30 p.m. | Exhibition Hall

Meet and mingle with fellow emerging leaders invested in the burgeoning U.S. sports betting space during the drinks reception closing Day 2 at Betting on Sports America. Find ELG in our exclusive networking area between the Sports Betting Community Booth and Speakers' Lounge.

---

Betting on Sports America Networking Party

Wed, April 24 | 7:00 p.m. - midnight | Victory Terrace, Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment

TIG is excited to co-host a truly unique networking event at Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment. In addition to great food and a complimentary bar, attendees also will have the opportunity to experience a behind-the-scenes tour of the FanDuel Sportsbook.